

Teaching Technology in Early Elementary through Middle School

Presented by Julie Darling, Media Specialist, Dexter Community Schools
My Media Center Website: bateslibrary.weebly.com

Presentation Resources

Dance Mat Typing

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/schools/typing/>

Free Word Processing software from BBC schools.

International Children's Digital Library

<http://en.childrenslibrary.org/>

Free digital books in a variety of languages.

Goodreads

<http://www.goodreads.com/>

Book organization/social network site.

Zunal

<http://www.zunal.com/>

Make your very own webquest or use someone else's'. Nice design.

Make Beliefs Comix

<http://www.makebeliefscomix.com/>

Create and print or email a comic strip.

Zamzar

<http://www.zamzar.com/>

Free file conversion.

Google Earth/Sky/Moon

<http://www.google.com/sky/>

Explore space Google style.

Alice

<http://www.alice.org/>

Learn computer programming by creating virtual worlds.

Big Huge Labs

<http://bighugelabs.com/>

Make image files into something more.

Kerpoof Studio

<http://www.kerpoof.com/>

Create movies, drawings, cards, pictures, tell a story...

Wordle

<http://www.wordle.net/>

Make Beautiful word clouds.

FREE: Federal Resources for Educational Excellence

<http://free.ed.gov/>

A treasure trove of teaching resources and lesson plans.

The American Memory Project from the Library of Congress

<http://memory.loc.gov>

Digitized primary source documents from the Library of Congress collection.